

PACESETTERS IN SAVINGS BONDS DRIVE—The above work team showed a 100 per cent response on the opening day of the current U.S. Rubber company drive to sign up workers at its Kankakee unit, Joliet Arsenal, operation for purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds via payroll deductions. Team Leaders William Caldwell and Don Price are shown flanking Team Captain Ken Watters as he points to the team's No. 1 position on the company "progress sign." Members of the "100 per centers" are, left to right: front row—Mathews Ivy, Virgil Mossman, Richard Woodrich, Courtney Phillips, Jr., Delmar Pruitt, Glen Fox, Eugene Umstatt; second row—Stanley Grennan, Raymond Wisedmantle, James Erwin, Eugene Smith, Lowell Huddleston, Dan Ferringer, Willard Maier; back row—Sam Ciluffo, Chester Lubanowski, Walter Cowan, Thomas McDonald, Alan Niehl, James Murphree, Russell Gabel and Lawrence Leslie.